

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	Things to consider when entering:
Safer Highways Rising Star Award			Open to early careers or late entry apprentices that have worked in the industry for less than three years. The Rising Star Award recognises an individual with the potential to be a leader of tomorrow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Why this person is a 'rising star' and why they should win this award.• Why they have had an impact on the sector in a short space of time• How this person has contributed to demonstrating excellence and/or has delivered best practice to help their organisation or the wider industry sector *
SH Highways Hero Award			Somebody within an organisation who regularly goes over and above to champion Health, Safety and wellbeing and Inclusion – open to all.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• What this individual has achieved and the reasons why they should be considered an highways hero• Describe how this person's notable contribution has been made *• How has his/her leadership benefitted the team working underneath them and the wider safety sector, including the projects he/she has been involved with?

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Things to consider when entering:
Safer Highways Communities Hero Award			An individual within the sector who has made a real difference to the wider community in which they work and gone over and above to deliver on a community project that has shown real tangible benefits from a social value perspective.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What this individual has achieved and the reasons why they should be considered a communities hero Describe how this person has excelled and explain in details the projects/initiatives they have been involved with? Why would members of the team or organisations and clients consider that person a communities hero? *
Safer Road Users Initiative			Open to all – for a project that improves safety of road users, an initiative that has been launched by an organisation or by an external board that has had an influence on the sector.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> How the project improved safety for road users. What road safety challenges required addressing and how were they overcome? Describe in detail how this project improves safety of road users Detail how you measure the performance and/or impact of the project *

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	Things to consider when entering:
Best Health and Safety on a Project			Open to a tier 2 contractor or below who has introduced an innovation in health safety and wellbeing products/initiative which benefitted the whole supply chain on a project.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • how the innovation, product or initiative has benefitted the whole supply chain and highlight why this was a collaborative effort. • What are the benefits to the collaboration in terms of efficiency and effectiveness? • Give details of the outline of the product, initiative or innovation and how you measured the success/delivery/implementation of it.
Mental Health Initiative			Open across the board to tier 1 and below to highlight excellence in mental health by a single organisation who has really driven mental health; not just across their own organisation but also across the industry.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What the organisation has achieved and how they have driven mental health? • How has the organisations leadership benefitted the team working underneath them and the wider mental health sector, including the projects he/she has been involved with? • Describe how this organisation has excelled and explain in

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

				details the projects/initiatives they have been involved with?
Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Things to consider when entering:
Innovation challenge for an SME around Health and Wellbeing			Recognising Innovation in an SME which has delivered real and tangible benefits in Health and Wellbeing.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What was the problem/challenge you were trying to solve in terms of health & wellbeing? Describe the trials you have undertaken and the implementation phase as well as the process for monitoring the impact/success/benefits of the project so far? Describe how you think your product etc could help solve problems on the network with health and wellbeing in the long-term and tells us how you think it could be developed further? *
Innovation challenge for an SME around Safety			Recognising Innovation in an SME which has delivered real and tangible benefits in Safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What was the problem/challenge you were trying to solve in terms of safety? What were the challenges met in developing the initiative, project, product or service?

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What were the challenges met in developing the initiative, project, product or service? *
Environmental Initiative of the year			Open to all – a supply chain organisation who have demonstrated a commitment to not only improving the environment for those who work on our roads but also the broader community and have made a significant impact on air/environmental quality across the UK	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Summarise in 400 words or less the commitment to improving the environment for road workers and the wider community. Explain what environmental challenges you sought to overcome or improve with your initiative. Explain how this initiative is future-ready and/or how it can be developed in the future
Innovation of the Year			An innovation whose existence has made a marked difference to the sector from either a safety, health or wellbeing perspective.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What was the problem/challenge you were trying to solve? What were the challenges met in developing the initiative, project, product or service? Describe how you think your product etc could help solve problems on the network with safety in the long-term and tells

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

				us how you think it could be developed further?
Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	Things to consider when entering:
Cross Sector Collaboration in Health, Safety and Wellbeing			Driven by tier 2 contractor or below with its partners to involve an award where collaboration has effectively delivered tangible benefits across multiple sectors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Summarise in 400 words or less how this collaborative work has delivered tangible benefits across multiple sectors Describe how the collaboration was planned and worked for the good of this project, how many partners were involved and what each of them contributed How were the benefits realised across several sectors?
Supply chain Health and Wellbeing Initiative			An organisation who embodies the spirit of Safer Highways and actively owns, develops and delivers health and wellbeing throughout the workforce.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Summarise in 400 words or less how the organisation embodies the spirit of Safer Highways and actively owns, develops and delivers health and wellbeing throughout the workforce. Explain your overall approach to health and wellbeing and the

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

				main things you wanted to achieve <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tell us how you measured the success of your health and wellbeing project
Award Title	Sponsored By:	Supported By:	About the Award:	Things to consider when entering:
Chairman's Award	MORGAN SINDALL		This award is the ultimate accolade and is awarded at the sole discretion of the Safer Highways Chairman and chosen from the shortlisted finalists in each of the categories.
Outstanding Contribution to Health and Safety	GallifordTry plc		Awarded by principal Sponsor Galliford Try in consultation with the Chief Executive of Safer Highways to an individual who throughout his career has made an outstanding contribution to Health and Safety.

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

SH Awards Categories and Submission Guidance.

Supported By:

Principal Sponsor:

